

Confusing words

Fill in the blanks.

1. The gentle breeze over the water. (blue, blew)
2. I want you to this dress well that everybody likes it. (so, sew)
3. The thieves decided to the rods lying on the path. (steal, steel)
4. the is good or bad, we will set out on our journey. (whether, weather)
5. She cookies. (eight, ate)
6. She was so, she decided to draw something on the black (board, bored)
7. They had a colourful for (sail, sale)

Negatives

Change the following affirmative sentences into negative sentences.

1. My mother makes delicious cakes- My mother makes disgusting cakes
2. Susan happily goes to school every day.
3. My sister shouts out the answers in class.
4. They are anxious about his safety.
5. I was studying for the test.
6. It was an unforgettable experience.
7. We enjoyed the evening very much.
8. She recognised him instantly.

