

If you notice that your child is having difficulty in remembering any high frequency sight words this tool can be used to make a worksheet for practising them over and over again. Simply input the words and a worksheet is generated for you. You can time your child reading the words each day. The aim is for the time to decrease as the week goes on due to constant repetition. This method of reading the same words many times each day for a week is called precision teaching.

<https://worksheetgenius.com/design.php?worksheet=precision>