

St. Colmcille Kenning:

Kennings are like riddles. They describe something without saying what it is. Each line in a kenning has only two words. These words are joined using a hyphen. The two words are usually a noun and a verb or a noun and a noun eg. Miracle-maker, Problem-solver etc.

St. Colmcille's Poetry Task:

Your task is to write a kenning about St. Colmcille.

First, make a list of some interesting nouns that you could use that are associated with St. Colmcille (remember, a noun is the name of an animal, person, place or thing).

Next, make a list of some exciting and interesting verbs that you might use (remember, a verb is an action word).

Now, write your kenning about St. Colmcille - don't forget to share your kenning with your teacher!

St. Colmcille Kenning:

